EXPLANATORY NOTES

Comparability of statistics

Because of the difference in data sources, collection methodologies and timing of notification of commencements, care should be exercised in comparing quarterly data derived from monthly dwelling unit commencements statistics with the quarterly dwelling unit commencements statistics from the Building Activity Survey.

Scope and coverage

The statistics are compiled from monthly reports, provided by local and other government authorities, of commencements of new houses and new other residential buildings for which:

- building permits were issued by local government authorities in areas subject to building control by those authorities, or
- contracts were let or day labour work was authorised by Commonwealth, State, Semi-government and local government authorities, or
- approvals were issued by the Rural Housing Authority in areas not subject to building control by local government authorities.

Major residential building commencements in areas not subject to the normal administrative approval processes (e.g. buildings on remote mine sites) are also included.

The number of dwelling units created by alterations and additions to existing buildings, and through the construction of new 'non residential buildings', is not included.

Definitions

A dwelling unit is defined as a self-contained suite of rooms, including cooking and bathing facilities and intended for long term residential use. Units (whether self-contained or not) within buildings offering institutional care such as hospitals or temporary accommodation such as motels, hostels and holiday apartments, are not defined as dwelling units.

A residential building is defined as a building predominantly consisting of one or more dwelling units. Residential buildings can be either houses or other residential buildings as follows:

- a house is defined as a detached building predominantly used for long term residential purposes and consisting of only one dwelling unit. Thus detached 'granny flats' and detached dwelling units (such as caretakers' residences) associated with non residential buildings are defined as houses for the purpose of these statistics.
- an other residential building is defined as a building which is predominantly used for long term residential purposes and which contains (or has attached to it) more than one dwelling unit (e.g. includes townhouses, duplexes, apartment buildings, etc.).

Commencements. For the purposes of this statistical series, a residential building is regarded as being commenced on the date when:

the building work is first inspected by a local government or other government authority building inspector or surveyor, whether the work is passed or not. In general, the first inspection is undertaken at the foundations or footings stage of construction; or the building work is determined as commenced by a building inspector or surveyor.

Ownership. The ownership of a building is classified as either public sector or private sector according to the sector of the intended owner of the completed building as evident at the time of approval. Residential buildings being constructed by private sector builders under government housing authority schemes whereby the authority has contracted, or intends to contract, to purchase the buildings on or before completion, are classified as public sector.

Australian Standard Geographical Classification

Area statistics are classified according to the Australian Standard Geographical Classification. Figures previously published for local government areas and statistical divisions are directly comparable with this classification except for the cities of Perth, Fremantle and Stirling which are obtained by aggregating the component statistical local areas.

An index list of statistical local areas is shown on page 20. In this publication City councils are marked (C), Town councils (T) and Shire councils (S).
