NOTES

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

This publication presents the latest available statistics at the time of preparation. The data presented are derived from a number of statistical sources which are updated at differing periods of regularity. Hence, the time period or date of the latest available data will differ between individual statistical series.

The statistical local areas (SLAs) presented generally correspond to legal local government areas (LGAs) in non-urban areas, and to suburbs in major urban areas.

SLAs are the smallest type of spatial unit of the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) shown in this publication. Where applicable they have been aggregated to LGAs, which have in turn been aggregated to statistical divisions.

STATISTICAL DIVISIONS

For the purpose of presenting the principal series of official statistics for the State, Queensland is divided into a number of geographical areas. These areas consist, for the most part, of aggregations of local government areas.

The primary division of the State is into 11 Statistical Divisions. These are intended to represent as far as possible 'regions' of the State which are characterised by discernible social and/or economic links between the inhabitants and economic units within them, under the unifying influence of one or more major cities or towns. The boundaries of the divisions have accordingly been delineated on the basic criterion that the degree of economic and/or social content and interaction within each division should be maximised. It should be emphasised that the boundaries of the divisions cannot be regarded as sharp lines of demarcation — they may, of necessity, be positioned within peripheral zones in which the influence of two or more 'focal' cities or towns overlap in varying degrees.

Brisbane Statistical Division

BRISBANE STATISTICAL DIVISION

Brisbane Statistical Division surrounds Moreton Bay and extends from Caboolture in the north to Ipswich in the west and Ormeau in the south. The Division accounted for only 0.3% of Queensland's total area but 45.5% of the estimated resident population at 30 June 1997.

Brisbane is the financial and administrative centre for Queensland. Brisbane also includes large retail and wholesale trade industries, hospitality and manufacturing industries.

Despite Brisbane Statistical Division being predominately urbanised, it is a producer of a wide range of fruit and vegetables, with easy access to produce markets. Brisbane Statistical Division contributed 3.6% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland in 1996–97, and is Queensland's largest producer of spring onions, shallots and parsley, and has the second largest area of nurseries and cut flowers. Also, Brisbane Statistical Division held the largest number of meat chickens (4,790,870 or 48.8%) in Queensland.

Moreton Statistical Division

MORETON STATISTICAL DIVISION

Moreton Statistical Division borders the Brisbane Statistical Division, taking in the Gold Coast and Sunshine Coast. The Moreton Statistical Division accounted for 1.0% of Queensland's total area but 18.8% of the estimated resident population at 30 June 1997.

Significant industries in the Gold Coast and the Sunshine Coast include property and business services, retail trade, construction and the hospitality industries of accommodation, cafes and restaurants.

In 1996–97, Moreton Statistical Division accounted for approximately 13.9% of Queensland's agricultural establishments and contributed 9.7% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland. The region is Queensland's largest producer of a wide range of agricultural produce, including potatoes, beetroot, cabbages, carrots, lettuces, mushrooms, white and brown onions, green peas, pumpkins, sweet corn, custard apples, kiwifruit, pineapples and strawberries. Moreton Statistical Division has the largest area of vegetables and cultivated turf in Queensland.

Wide Bay-Burnett Statistical Division

WIDE BAY-BURNETT STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Wide Bay-Burnett Statistical Division covers 52,283 square kilometres, 3.0% of the total area of Queensland. The Division had an estimated resident population of 227,638 persons at 30 June 1997 which represented 6.7% of the total Queensland population. While Wide Bay-Burnett Statistical Division is centred on Bundaberg, approximately 368 kilometres north of Brisbane, the next most significant population centres are Hervey Bay, Maryborough, Gympie and Kingaroy.

There is a diversity of agricultural activities in the area and in 1996–97, Wide Bay-Burnett Statistical Division contributed 10.9% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland. Crops and pastures contributed 61.4% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in the region. Sugar cane is the major crop, while the region was the largest producer of peanuts in Australia. The region is also Queensland's largest producer of a wide range of vegetables, including marrows, squash, zucchinis, snow peas and sweet potatoes. Wide Bay-Burnett Statistical Division also has the largest area devoted to orchard trees (including nuts), and has the largest production of oranges, lemons and limes, mandarins, macadamia nuts and passionfruit.

Darling Downs Statistical Division

DARLING DOWNS STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Darling Downs Statistical Division is to the west of Moreton Statistical Division and covers 90,080 square kilometres, representing 5.2% of the State. Its estimated resident population of 200,132 persons at 30 June 1997 represented 5.9% of the State population.

The Condamine River and its tributaries flow through this rich pastoral and agricultural region which is bounded in the north-east by the Great Dividing Range. Toowoomba City is the hub of commercial and industrial activity and the regional centre for higher education. Other major population centres are Warwick, Stanthorpe and Dalby.

Agriculture is a key industry, accounting for the largest number (6,854 or 22.1%) of agricultural establishments in Queensland in 1996–97, and the highest contribution to the gross value of agricultural commodities produced (24.1%). The area is Queensland's largest producer of wheat, oats, barley, grain sorghum, maize, cotton, asparagus, broccoli, cauliflower, celery, apples, pears, stone fruit, grapes and watermelon. The Division also has the largest number of dairy cattle and pigs in Queensland and the value of livestock slaughterings in 1996–97 was the highest in the State.

South-West Statistical Division

SOUTH-WEST STATISTICAL DIVISION

The South-West Statistical Division covers 322,655 square kilometres, 18.6% of Queensland's total area. This Division had an estimated resident population at 30 June 1997 of 26,175 persons or just 0.8% of the State's total population. The Division is situated on the South Australian and New South Wales border with the western part being desert receiving less than 150 millimetres of rain per annum. The main population centres are Roma, Charleville, St George and Cunnamulla.

Key activities in the region include wool growing and meat cattle grazing as well as cotton and grain growing. The region recorded the highest number of sheep and lambs (4,572,200 or 43.4%) in Queensland in 1996–97. Overall, South-West Statistical division contributed 7.3% to the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland. Oil and gas production contributes significantly to the region while opal mining is also an important activity in the west of the Division.

Fitzroy Statistical Division

FITZROY STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Fitzroy Statistical Division covers 123,354 square kilometres (7.1% of Queensland's total area), with an estimated resident population of 179,288 persons at 30 June 1997, representing 5.3% of the Queensland population. The region is bordered to the east by the Great Barrier Reef and offshore islands and to the west by the Carnarvon Ranges.

Rockhampton is the main city in this Division and lies on the Tropic of Capricorn and the Fitzroy River. Other significant centres of population are Gladstone, Blackwater, Emerald and Biloela. Gladstone is Queensland's largest multi-cargo trading port. In addition to being one of the world's largest coal ports, major commodities include bauxite, alumina, caustic soda, petroleum products, cement, woodchips and wheat.

Key industries of the Fitzroy Statistical Division include mining, manufacturing, tourism and agriculture. In 1996–97, livestock slaughterings and livestock products accounted for 50.4% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in the region. Fitzroy Statistical Division has the highest number of meat cattle in Queensland. In 1996–97, the Division also recorded the largest production of canola and sunflower in Queensland.

Central-West Statistical Division

CENTRAL-WEST STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Central-West Statistical Division covers 370,089 square kilometres (21.4% of Queensland's total area). The Division is Queensland's least populated and had an estimated resident population of 12,374 persons at 30 June 1997, representing only 0.4% of Queensland's population. The largest population centre in the area is Longreach, approximately 700 kilometres west of Rockhampton. Blackall, Barcaldine and Winton are other major population centres in the region.

In 1996–97, the Central-West Statistical Division had the highest area of agricultural holdings in Queensland (32,618,336ha or 21.6%), despite accounting for only 2.3% of all establishments. Key agricultural industries include meat cattle and wool growing.

Mackay Statistical Division

MACKAY STATISTICAL DIVISION

Mackay Statistical Division covers 68,997 square kilometres (4.0% of total Queensland). The Division had an estimated resident population of 122,461 persons at 30 June 1997, or 3.6% of the Queensland population. The region is bordered to the east by the Great Barrier Reef and offshore islands. The main population centre of the area is Mackay. Other major population centres are Moranbah, Dysart, Sarina, Proserpine and Clermont.

The main economic bases of this Division are sugar cane growing and processing, coal mining, cattle grazing and hospitality. In 1996–97, the region was Queensland's second largest producer of sugar cane cut for crushing.

Northern Statistical Division

NORTHERN STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Northern Statistical Division covers 100,951 square kilometres (5.8% of total Queensland) and had an estimated resident population of 193,331 at 30 June 1997 (5.7% of Queensland's total population). The Northern Statistical Division is bordered to the east by the Great Barrier Reef and to the west by the Great Dividing Range. The population is centred in Townsville-Thuringowa, the hub of commercial and industrial activity in the Division. Townsville-Thuringowa is also the regional centre of government administration and higher education and is also important for its port trade. Other significant population centres in the Division are Charters Towers, Ayr, Bowen and Ingham.

In 1996–97, Northern Statistical Division accounted for approximately 6.7% of Queensland's agricultural establishments and contributed 11.1% of the gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland. The region is Queensland's largest producer of sugar cane cut for crushing. The region is also the largest producer of a number of vegetables and fruits, including beans (french and runner), capsicum, chillies and peppers, cucumbers, rockmelon, tomatoes and mangoes.

Far North Statistical Division

FAR NORTH STATISTICAL DIVISION

The Far North Statistical Division covers 268,306 square kilometres, 15.5% of Queensland's total area. The Division had an estimated resident population at 30 June 1997 of 215,199 persons which was 6.3% of the State's population. The Division is bounded to the east by the Great Barrier Reef and partially to the west by the Gulf of Carpentaria, and it extends to Thursday Island in the north.

Cairns is the largest population centre in the area and is also the focus for much of the hospitality industry activity in the area. The other major population centres include Mareeba, Innisfail, Atherton, Port Douglas and Gordonvale.

Significant industries include hospitality, mining and agriculture with the region being the largest fruit growing area in Queensland. The Far North Statistical Division accounted for 94.6% of Queensland's production of bananas and 63.6% of Queensland's production of papaws in 1996-97. Overall, the region accounted for 10.5% of the total gross value of agricultural commodities produced in Queensland.

North-West Statistical Division

NORTH-WEST STATISTICAL DIVISION

The North-West Statistical Division covers 311,286 square kilometres, 18.0% of total Queensland. The Division had an estimated resident population at 30 June 1997 of 35,848 persons which was 1.1% of the State's population. The Division is bounded by the Northern Territory in the west and the Gulf of Carpentaria to the north. The major population centre is Mt Isa which is home to 61.8% of the Division's population. Other significant population centres are Cloncurry, Hughenden and Normanton.

The key industries in the region are mining, beef cattle grazing and wool growing. Although the region has the smallest number of agricultural establishments (500) in Queensland, it has the largest average size of agricultural establishments (60,253ha).

EXPLANATORY NOTES

DEFINITIONS

- 1 Legal local government areas (LGAs), are spatial units which represent the geographical areas of incorporated local government councils, such as cities (C), towns (T) and shires (S).
- 2 Statistical divisions, which are groupings of whole or partial LGAs, are designed to be relatively homogeneous regions characterised by identifiable social and economic units within the region.
- 3 Statistical districts have been defined around selected urban areas to provide comparable statistics over a period of time. These districts, which are intended to contain the anticipated urban spread for at least 20 years, are generally defined as having a population of 25,000 or more and experiencing urban growth beyond the LGA boundaries.
- 4 Data for some series shown in Tables 1 to 12 which are available for statistical districts are shown on pages 108 and 109.
- 5 Statistical local areas are the smallest types of spatial units in the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) for which data are shown in this publication. In general, they correspond to LGAs in non-urban areas or suburbs in major urban areas.
- 6 The area in square kilometres of statistical areas is derived from digitised statistical boundaries from the 1996 Census.
- 7 Data in this publication relate to the period 1993–94 to 1998–99, over which time there have been four versions of ASGC used. Each data set is presented according to the ASGC version current at the time of collection.
 - ASGC Edition 2.4 applies to Local government.
 - ASGC 1996 Edition applies to Estimated resident population, Births, Deaths, Building, Agriculture, Manufacturing, Schools, Tourist accommodation and Vehicles on register.
 - ASGC 1998 Edition applies to Business locations.

(a) Population changes estimated at 30 June prior to the year of effect. (b) Year ended 30 June. (c) Less than 0.1 square kilometres.

8 Estimated resident populations shown are based on the 1996 Census of Population and Housing counts adjusted for under-enumeration, as measured by a post-enumeration survey, plus the estimated number of residents temporarily overseas.

9 Dwelling counts for the 1996 Census of Population and Housing include occupied private dwellings (including caravans in caravan parks), non-private dwellings (hotels, hospitals, etc.) and unoccupied dwellings.

10 Figures shown for births and deaths relate to the resident population of the area for which they are shown.

11 Business locations data are classified according to Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC).

12 Statistics of building work approved are compiled from: (a) permits issued by local government authorities in areas subject to building control by the relevant authorities and (b) contracts let or day labour work authorised by Commonwealth, State, semi-government and local government authorities. Major building activity which takes place in areas not subject to the normal administrative approval processes (e.g. mining leases) is also included. The number of dwelling units created by alterations and additions to existing buildings, i.e. buildings other than dwellings, is not included.

13 Location. A location is a physical unit of an establishment, usually of an unbroken physical area or site.

14 Data for motor vehicles on register were provided by Queensland Department of Transport.

15 Motor vehicles data exclude Commonwealth Government owned vehicles.

16 Where figures have been rounded, discrepancies may occur between totals and sums of the component items.

17 Australian Standard Geographical Classification spatial unit changes between Edition 2.5 and 1996 Edition, effective from 1 July 1996, are as follows:
