EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bulletin contains statistics of divorce for the quarter ended March, 1965, and for previous periods. For further details in respect of past periods, see previous issues in this series and the annual bulletin "Demography".

2. Certain tables appearing in previous issues of this series and providing more detailed characteristics of divorces and divorced persons on a quarterly basis, will no longer be published in the quarterly issues. However, full details for each year will be published in a separate annual issue of the series. For 1964 details see "Social Statistics No. 33 Divorce, Quarter and Year Ended December, 1964", issued 24th August, 1965.

3. The Commonwealth Matrimonial Causes Act 1959 came into operation on 1st February, 1961. This Act provides a uniform law throughout Australia with respect to divorce and other matrimonial causes, and supersedes the Matrimonial Causes laws of the States and Territories except in so far as the transitional provisions of the Act keep them in force for the purpose of completing pending proceedings. Therefore, statistics of petitions filed since February, 1961, are on a uniform basis for all States and Territories, but statistics of decrees of dissolution, nullity and judicial separation granted since that date include some decrees made on petitions under the superseded laws and are to that extent not uniformly based. By 1965, the number of such decrees had dwindled to an insignificant number. Because of differences in legislation and also some variations from State to State in the bases of compilation of divorce statistics prior to the introduction of the uniform system, the figures for 1960 are not strictly comparable with those for later years.

4. Under the new legislation a court may grant decrees of dissolution of marriage (commonly known as divorce), judicial separation, nullity of marriage, restitution of conjugal rights and jactitation of marriage (i.e. that a person has falsely claimed to be another person's wife or husband). Orders may be made for the custody of children, the provision of maintenance, damages and the settlement of marriage property.

5. The statistics in this bulletin refer only to petitions filed and final decrees granted, for dissolution, nullity and judicial separation. Statistics of petitions filed relate only to the original petition in a suit, i.e. a cross-petition contained in an answer by the respondent is not taken as a separate petition.
