Frequently Asked Questions

Census night is Tuesday 10 August 2021

What is the Census?

The Census is a snapshot of Australia's people and housing, and tells the story of how we are changing. It is used to estimate Australia's population, distribute government funds, and plan services for communities right around Australia.

This form asks questions about health, education, cultural background, employment and living situations. This information helps make sure the right services are available to individuals, families and communities, where and when they are needed.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au to find out more about why the Census is important.

Who do I include on the form?

Make sure every person who stayed at this address on Census night is included on this form, including visitors and babies.

We collect information based on a specific date to give us the most accurate snapshot. The Census collects information on everyone in Australia, including people from overseas.

What if I want a separate form for privacy reasons?

To request an extra form to complete your Census separately from other household members, go to www.census.abs.gov.au/paper-form or call our 24-hour automated paper form request service on 1800 130 250. You will need the Census number from the front of this form.

Do I have to complete the Census?

Yes, the Census is compulsory. Everyone in Australia on Tuesday 10 August 2021 must be included on a Census form. This information is collected under the authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au/privacy to find out more about why the Census is compulsory.

Is my information confidential?

Yes, the information you provide is confidential. The ABS is legally required to keep data secure and not release information in a way that will identify any individual, household or business. Your data is protected by the secrecy provisions of the Census and Statistics Act 1905.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au/privacy to find out more about how we keep your information secure.

What if there are more than six people staying on Census night?

If there are more than six people at this address on Census night, the easiest way to complete your Census is online.

Alternatively, to request an extra paper form go to www.census.abs.gov.au/paper-form or call our 24-hour automated paper form request service on 1800 130 250. You will need the Census number from the front of this form.

What if no one is home on Census night?

If this address is unoccupied on Census night, please go to www.census.abs.gov.au or call us on 1800 512 441 to let us know.

Need more help?

Help is available at www.census.abs.gov.au/help

There is a range of information and self-service options to help you complete your Census.

If you'd prefer to speak to someone, you can call us on 1800 512 441.

All people must complete their Census where they spent Census night
