Census Personal Form
Census night is Tuesday 10 August 2021

What is the Census?
The Census is a snapshot of Australia’s people and housing, and tells the story of how we are changing. It is used to estimate Australia’s population, distribute government funds, and plan services for communities right around Australia.

This form asks questions about health, education, cultural background, employment and living situations. This information helps make sure the right services are available to individuals, families and communities, where and when they are needed.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au to find out more about why the Census is important.

Do I have to complete the Census?
Yes, the Census is compulsory. Everyone in Australia on Tuesday 10 August 2021 must be included on a Census form. This information is collected under the authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au/privacy to find out more about why the Census is compulsory.

Is my information confidential?
Yes, the information you provide is confidential. The ABS is legally required to keep data secure and not release information in a way that will identify any individual, household or business. Your data is protected by the secrecy provisions of the Census and Statistics Act 1905.

Go to www.census.abs.gov.au/privacy to find out more about how we keep your information secure.

Need more help?
Help is available at www.census.abs.gov.au/help
There is a range of information and self-service options to help you complete the Census.
