INTRODUCTION

This bulletin contains an analysis of the population and dwellings of Tropical Australia as enumerated at the Census of 30th June, 1961.

Tropical Australia is defined for Census purposes as that part of Australia north of the Tropic of Capricorn (latitude 23° 30'S.). It has an area of 1,150,962 square miles and comprises almost 39 per cent. of the total area of Australia, including 360,642 square miles or 54 per cent. of Queensland, 364,000 square miles (37 per cent.) of Western Australia and 426,320 square miles (81 per cent.) of the Northern Territory.

At 30th June, 1961, there were 375,498 persons or 3.57 per cent. of the Australian population (excluding full-blood aboriginals) in this area. Of this total, 344,461 persons were in Queensland, 9,480 in Western Australia and 21,557 in the Northern Territory. Males numbered 202,771 and females 172,727.

In this bulletin the population is classified according to age, conjugal condition, birthplace, period of residence in Australia of persons born outside Australia, nationality, religion, industry and occupational status. Occupied dwellings are classified according to class (private house, flat, etc.). Unoccupied dwellings are classified according to reason why unoccupied. All tables exclude particulars of full-blood aboriginals and of dwellings occupied solely by them.

A list of 1961 Census publications already issued appears at the end of this bulletin.

(a) The category "Not at Work" includes those who stated that they were usually engaged in work, but were not actively seeking a job at the time of the Census by reason of sickness, accident, etc., or because they were on strike, changing jobs, or temporarily laid off, etc. It includes also persons able and willing to work but unable to secure employment, as well as casual and seasonal workers not actually in a job at the time of the Census. The numbers shown as "Not at Work", therefore, do not represent the number of unemployed available for work and unable to obtain it. (b) In processing the 1961 Census data an occupational status was allocated prior to tabulation in all instances where this information was not stated.
