CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, 30TH JUNE, 1961.NO. 1. POPULATION OF CAPITAL CITIES AND PRINCIPAL TOWNS : AUSTRALIA

This Bulletin contains the first results of the Census of 30th June, 1961, and shows the population of the capital cities and principal towns of each State of Australia, with comparative data for the previous Census in 1954. The 1961 results herein are being issued at a comparatively early stage in an interim form, as they are derived from the initial Field Count and may, in some cases, be subject to considerable amendment on completion of tabulation.

Bulletins will be issued at intervals over the next two weeks showing Census 1961 populations on the basis of Field Count for -

- (a) All incorporated Cities and Towns and all Non-Municipal Towns with a population of 1,000 persons or more at the Census of 1961.
- (b) All Shires and District Councils.
- (c) Individual States and Territories.

Many changes have been made both in Local Government boundaries and in urban boundaries for Census purposes since 1954. To facilitate comparison of growth in such cases, the population of each city and town is shown for both 1954 and 1961 first on the basis of the boundaries used at the Census of 1954. This is followed by the population in 1961 of the areas added since 1954. The total population on 1961 boundaries is then shown.

POPULATION OF CAPITAL CITIES
(Exclusive of Full-blood Aboriginals).

NOTE: The 1961 figures are derived from the Census Field Count and may be subject to considerable amendment on completion of tabulation. Generally, they are expected to be increased by inclusion of belated returns.

CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, 30th JUNE, 1961NO.2. NEW SOUTH WALES - POPULATION OF MUNICIPALITIES AND OF NON-MUNICIPAL TOWNS (1,000 PERSONS OR MORE).

This Bulletin contains particulars of the population recorded in each Municipality, and also in each Non-municipal Town with a population of 1,000 persons or more, in New South Wales at the Census of 30th June, 1961.

These figures are issued at a comparatively early stage in an interim form as they are derived from the initial Field Count and may in some cases be subject to considerable amendment on completion of tabulation.

The Metropolitan Municipalities are shown in geographical groups. The other Municipalities and the Non-municipal Towns have been arranged in groups by Statistical Divisions, then in alphabetical order.

Non-municipal Towns, as the name implies, are towns which are not separately incorporated for purposes of local government. They have been indicated herein by adding the letters "N.M." after the name of the town. Boundaries of these towns were specially determined for Census purposes to embrace the urban areas which could be regarded as the town. Municipalities have been indicated by the letter "M".

CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, 30th JUNE, 1961

NO.8. - POPULATION OF THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

Particulars of the population recorded in each district of the Australian Capital Territory at the Census of 30th June, 1961, are shown herein. Owing to the rapid development which has taken place in Canberra the population of the Territory has almost doubled since the previous Census of 30th June, 1954.

The population comprised -

	1947	1954	1961
Canberra	15,156	28,277	56,430
Jervis Bay District	360	517	526
Remainder of Australian Capital Territory	1,389	1,521	1,851
Total, Australian Capital Territory	16,905	30,315	58,807

The population of the Municipality of Queanbeyan (on the borders of the Australian Capital Territory, but outside it) was 7,310 in 1954, and 9,445 in 1961, excluding the Oaks Estate which had a population of 250 in 1961 and is in the Australian Capital Territory, adjoining the Queanbeyan Railway Station.

The number of persons enumerated in the Australian Capital Territory (including Jervis Bay) at the Census of 30th June, 1961, namely 58,807, represents an increase of 28,492 (93.99%) since the Census of 1954. Males increased by 14,626 (90.12%) and females by 13,866 (98.44%).

In accordance with international usage, Census particulars were not obtained from the diplomatic representatives of foreign governments and the High Commissioners representing the governments of the members of the British Commonwealth, with their families and staffs. The number of people excluded in this way from the Census total was approximately 800.

Practically the whole of the increase in population in the Australian Capital Territory occurred in Canberra, the population of which was 56,430 or 28,153 (99.56%) more than at 30th June, 1954; males increased by 14,384 (95.41%) and females by 13,769 (104.30%).

Population counts were undertaken in Canberra on 30th June, 1957, and 28th June, 1959, when 35,827 persons (18,949 males, 16,878 females) and 43,973 persons (23,147 males, 20,826 females) respectively were enumerated. The increase in the population of Canberra since the 1959 Population Count was 12,457 persons (6,313 males, 6,144 females) or 28.33%.

Particulars of the population in each District of the Australian Capital Territory at the Censuses of 1954 and 1961 are shown in the following table -

NO.12. SOUTH AUSTRALIA - POPULATION OF DISTRICT COUNCILS

This Bulletin contains particulars of the population recorded in each District Council in South Australia at the Census of 30th June, 1961. Figures are also shown for each Non-municipal Town with a population of 1,000 persons or more within these District Councils.

These figures are issued at a comparatively early stage in an interim form as they are derived from the initial Field Count and may in some cases be subject to considerable amendment on completion of tabulation.

The District Councils and the Non-municipal Towns have been arranged in groups by Statistical Divisions, then in alphabetical order.

Non-municipal Towns, as the name implies, are towns which are not separately incorporated for purposes of local government. They have been indicated herein by adding the letters "N.M." after the name of the town. Boundaries of these towns were specially determined for Census purposes to embrace the urban areas which could be regarded as the town.

CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, 30TH JUNE, 1961NO.13. WESTERN AUSTRALIA - POPULATION OF SHIRES

This Bulletin contains particulars of the population recorded in each Shire in Western Australia at the Census of 30th June, 1961. Figures are also shown for each Non-municipal Town with a population of 1,000 persons or more within these Shires.

These figures are issued at a comparatively early stage in an interim form as they are derived from the initial Field Count and may in some cases be subject to considerable amendment on completion of tabulation.

From 1st July, 1961, the nomenclature of local government areas in Western Australia was changed in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1960 which came into operation on that date. Areas which were formerly Road Districts are now known as Shires, and the new designation is used throughout this Bulletin. Concurrently the names of a number of districts were altered. In the table below the new name has been used, but the former name is also shown.

The Shires and Non-municipal Towns have been arranged in groups by Statistical Divisions, then in alphabetical order.

Non-municipal Towns, as the name implies, are towns which are not separately incorporated for purposes of local government. They have been indicated herein by adding the letters "N.M." after the name of the town. Boundaries of these towns were specially determined for Census purposes to embrace the urban areas which could be regarded as the town.

NO.16. POPULATION OF STATES AND TERRITORIES OF AUSTRALIA

This Bulletin contains interim figures of the population in each State and Territory within Australia at the Census of 30th June, 1961, together with final figures for the previous Census in 1954.

The figures for 1961 are in interim form because they are derived from the preliminary check of the Census Schedules and are subject to amendment on completion of tabulation. They include "migratory" population which comprises all persons, not elsewhere enumerated, who spent Census night on ships, or long distance trains, motor coaches or aircraft.

The 1961 Census figures in this statement should not be compared with previously published quarterly estimates of population which are subject to post-censal adjustment. This will not be completed for several weeks.

TABLE 5. - QUEENSLAND - POPULATION AND DWELLINGS : LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS, CENSUS, 30TH JUNE, 1961.

(Exclusive of full-blood Aboriginals and Dwellings occupied solely by them)

NOTE - Under the system of local government in Queensland there were, at Census date, 19 Cities and Towns and 112 Shires. Cities and Towns are regarded as urban in nature. Shires are usually rural in nature but within Shires, Non-municipal Towns of 1,000 persons or more are, for Census purposes, regarded as urban and shown separately. They are indicated in the table by the letters "N.M."

In addition to the area covered by the local government system, there was an unincorporated area of 1,022 square miles which constituted about 0.15 per cent. of the total area of the State.

For the 1961 Census the Metropolitan Area of Brisbane was redefined to include the City of Brisbane, the City of Redcliffe and the urban part of Pine Rivers Shire. The City of Brisbane, because of its size, has been separated into 55 defined statistical areas.

TABLE 6. - SOUTH AUSTRALIA - POPULATION AND DWELLINGS : LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS, CENSUS, 30TH JUNE, 1961.

(Exclusive of full-blood Aboriginals and Dwellings occupied solely by them)

NOTE - Under the system of local government in South Australia there were, at Census date, 42 Municipalities and 100 District Councils. Municipalities are usually urban in nature, but some are, for Census purposes, classified as rural or partly rural. In these cases, any Municipality or part of a Municipality which is regarded as rural has been clearly indicated in the table. District Councils, on the other hand, are usually rural in nature but within District Councils, Non-municipal Towns of 1,000 persons or more are, for Census purposes, regarded as urban and shown separately. They are indicated in the table by the letters "N.M."

Only about 15 per cent. of the area of South Australia was covered by the local government system, the remaining 85 per cent. being unincorporated for local government purposes.

TABLE 8. - TASMANIA - POPULATION AND DWELLINGS : LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS, CENSUS, 30TH JUNE, 1961.

(Exclusive of full-blood Aboriginals and Dwellings occupied solely by them)

NOTE. - Under the system of local government in Tasmania there were, at Census date, 49 Municipalities (including the Cities of Hobart and Launceston) which covered the whole area of Tasmania. Some Municipalities include both urban and rural areas, the former being Non-municipal Towns with a population of 750 persons or more. Tasmanian Municipalities are therefore more akin to the Shires and District Councils than to the Municipalities of other States.

Non-municipal Towns (within boundaries defined for Census purposes) are indicated in the table by the letters "N.M."
