INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS PRESENTED IN THIS PUBLICATION

This publication presents a range of education and labour force statistics produced from the 2001 Census of Population and Housing for New South Wales (NSW). For comparative purposes, it includes 1996 Census data presented on 2001 Census geography.

The tables in this publication provide selected characteristics of the population for Statistical Divisions (SDs), Statistical Subdivisions (SSDs) and Statistical Local Areas (SLAs). The purpose of these tables is to allow a broad comparison of characteristics between geographic areas.

This publication also contains the Basic Community Profile (BCP) for NSW. This set of tables is provided to illustrate the wide range of data available from the Census. The BCP consists of 33 tables. This publication contains tables 22 to 33 which focus on education and labour force characteristics. The remainder of the BCP, tables 1 to 21, is published in Census of Population and Housing: Selected Social and Housing Characteristics for Statistical Local Areas, New South Wales (cat. no. 2015.1).

The statistics in this publication are presented on the basis of where people were counted on Census Night ('as enumerated' counts).

One of the important features of the Census is that it describes the characteristics of Australia's population for small geographic areas and small population groups. While not available in this publication, data at the smallest geographic level (Collection District) are available in a range of census products. For more information on these products, please refer to the Appendix—Census Products and Services. Concepts and definitions used in this publication are explained in the Glossary and more detailed information is available in the 2001 Census Dictionary (cat. no. 2901.0). The Explanatory Notes in this publication provide a discussion of the scope and coverage of the Census, the different measures of population, and the limitations of census data.

This publication is one of a series of publications which provide data at the SLA level for each state and territory. A similar publication is also available for the whole of Australia, providing data at SSD level. See the Appendix—Census Products and Services for more information.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

LABOUR FORCE

In New South Wales (NSW), the labour force grew from 2,806,544 to 2,961,592 persons aged 15 years and over, an increase of 5.5%, compared with 6.6% for Australia.

EMPLOYED

In 2001, there were 2,748,396 employed persons of which 1,805,433 were full-time workers and 858,483 were part-time. This represented an increase of 7.4% (189,521 persons) since 1996 which was the third smallest increase of all states and territories, after Tasmania (0.2%) and South Australia (7.2%).

Full-time/Part-time

In 2001, there was a fall in the proportion of full-time workers who represented 61.0% of the labour force, down from 62.7% in 1996.

In the period 1996 to 2001, the number of persons employed part-time grew from 741,211 in 1996 to 858,483 in 2001, an increase of 15.8%, compared with 17.6% for Australia. These workers represented 29.0% of the labour force in 2001, compared with 26.4% in 1996.

Among most of the NSW Statistical Subdivisions (SSDs), both the unemployment rate and full-time employment rate was lower in 2001 than in 1996. The lower unemployment is associated with increased part-time employment.

The only SSDs to experience an increase in the proportion of full-time workers were Murray - Darling (to 64.7% in 2001 from 61.8% in 1996), Inner Sydney (to 67.1% from 65.9%) and Macquarie - Barwon (to 59.6% from 58.9%). The Murray - Darling SSD also experienced the only decrease in the proportion of part-time workers (to 26.5% from 26.8%).

The SSDs which recorded the largest decreases in the proportion of full-time workers since 1996 were Central Tablelands (to 59.3% from 63.4%) and Far West (to 53.9% from 58.0%). These SSD also recorded some of the largest increases in part-time workers (Central Tablelands (to 29.4% from 25.1%) and Far West (to 30.9% from 26.3%)). The Off-Shore Areas & Migratory SSD and the Jervis Bay Territory also recorded large decreases in full-time workers and large increases in part-time workers, but were the only SSDs to experience a rise in the unemployment rate.

In 2001, the highest proportions of full-time workers, as a proportion of persons in the labour force, were recorded in the Statistical Local Areas (SLAs) of Sydney - Inner (77.3%), Windouran (75.2%) and Unincorp. Far West (75.0%). The SLA of Off-Shore Areas & Migratory recorded 84.4%.

The highest concentrations of part-time workers, as proportions of persons in the labour force, were recorded in the SLAs of Lord Howe Island (46.4%), Byron (40.1%), Eurobodalla (37.9%), Great Lakes and Coffs Harbour - Pt B (both 37.1%).

BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE

ABOUT THE BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE

The key characteristics from the Census are summarised in a set of 33 standard tables which make up the Basic Community Profile (BCP).

The first 21 tables (B01–B21) provide a range of social, demographic and housing characteristics from the Census and are published for Australia and each state and territory in Census of Population and Housing: Selected Social and Housing Characteristics for Statistical Local Areas (cat. nos 2015.0–8). Similar BCP tables are available for other geographic areas, including Collection Districts, Local Government Areas, Postal Areas and Suburbs.

The remainder of the BCP series (B22–B33) are included in this publication and provide education and labour force related data.

BCPs for Statistical Local Areas are available from our web site free of charge.

For further information about the Community Profile Series, please refer to the Appendix—Census Products and Services.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SCOPE AND COVERAGE

1 The 2001 Census of Population and Housing was held on 7 August 2001. Australia's first national Census was held in 1911 and since 1961 a census has been taken every five years, a frequency which is specified in the Census and Statistics Act 1905. The objective of the Census is to count the number of people in Australia on Census Night, identifying their key characteristics and those of the dwellings in which they live.

2 The Census aims to count every person who spent Census Night in Australia. This includes Australian residents in Antarctica and people in the territories of Jervis Bay, Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Christmas Island. The other Australian External Territories, Norfolk Island and minor islands such as Heard and McDonald Islands, are outside the scope of the Australian Census. The only people in Australia on Census Night who are excluded from the Census are foreign diplomats and their families.

3 The Census includes people on vessels in or between Australian ports, on board long distance trains, buses or aircraft and on oil or gas rigs off the Australian coast. People entering Australia before midnight on Census Night are counted while people leaving an Australian port for an overseas destination before midnight on Census Night are not. Visitors to Australia are included regardless of how long they have been in the country or how long they plan to stay. However, for people who intend to be in Australia less than one year, only basic demographic data are available. The Census includes homeless people and people camping out.

4 All occupied dwellings are counted in the Census with the exception of diplomatic dwellings. Unoccupied private dwellings are also counted with the exception of unoccupied dwellings in caravan parks, marinas and manufactured home estates, and units in accommodation for the retired or aged (self-care). Unoccupied residences of owners, managers or caretakers of such establishments are counted.

5 Details about the 2001 Census content, collection operations, confidentiality and privacy protection, processing and evaluation activities are contained in 2001 Census of Population and Housing: Nature and Content (cat. no. 2008.0).

STATISTICAL LOCAL AREA BOUNDARIES

6 The boundaries of Statistical Local Areas (SLAs) are revised from time to time to accord with changes to Local Government Area (LGA) boundaries and to meet needs for small area information. The boundaries shown in this publication are those applying at the time of the 2001 Census. Further information on geographic classifications is contained in Statistical Geography: Volume 1—Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC), 2001 (cat. no. 1216.0).

BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE TABLES B22 TO B33

7 Tables numbered B22 to B33 contained in this publication are from the Census of Population and Housing: Basic Community Profile (cat. no. 2001.0). These tables are available in hardcopy or electronic format for all standard census geographic areas. For more information about the Community Profiles please refer to the Appendix.

ABS POPULATION ESTIMATES

8 This publication contains population counts based on a 'Place of enumeration' basis. 'Place of enumeration' means where the person was counted on Census Night. The Census can provide person counts based on 'Place of usual residence' for Collection Districts (CDs) and aggregations of CDs.

9 The Estimated Resident Population (ERP) is the official Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) estimate of the Australian population. The ERP is based on results of the Census of Population and Housing. It is compiled as at 30 June of each census year and updated quarterly between censuses. The intercensal estimates of the resident population are revised following the next census.

10 The ERP is derived from census usual residence counts, by making the following three important adjustments:

- An adjustment for census net underenumeration (or undercount). The level of underenumeration is derived from the Post Enumeration Survey which is conducted soon after the Census, and from estimates based on demographic analysis.
- The inclusion of an estimated number of Australian residents who are temporarily overseas on Census Night and are therefore not covered by the Australian Census. The number of such people is estimated from statistics on overseas arrivals and departures.
- The third adjustment occurs because the Census does not fall on 30 June. For example, the 2001 Census was held on 7 August. Back dating of population estimates from 7 August to 30 June is accomplished using data from birth and death registrations, overseas arrivals and departures, and estimates of interstate migration, for the period 1 July to 7 August.

11 ABS population estimates are published in Australian Demographic Statistics (cat. no. 3101.0), produced quarterly, and in Population by Age and Sex, Australian States and Territories (cat. no. 3201.0) produced annually. ERPs for SLAs are published in Regional Population Growth, Australia and New Zealand (cat. no. 3218.0).

12 The ABS also provides projections (based on different assumptions as to future fertility, mortality and migration) of the resident population of Australia, states and territories. These projections are published every two years in Population Projections, Australia (cat. no. 3222.0).

DATA LIMITATIONS

13 Census data are subject to a number of inaccuracies resulting from errors by respondents or mistakes in collection or processing. Whilst many of these are corrected by careful processing procedures, some still remain. The effect of the remaining errors is generally slight, although it may be more important for small groups in the population. The main kinds of error to keep in mind are:

- Partial non-response: In some cases where an answer is not provided to a question an answer is imputed (often from other information on the form). In other cases a 'Not stated' code is allocated.
- Processing error: While such errors can occur in any processing system, quality management is used continuously to improve the quality of processed data, and to identify and correct data of unacceptable quality.
- Random adjustment: Table cells containing small values are randomly adjusted or suppressed to avoid releasing information about particular individuals, families, or households. The effects of these adjustments are statistically insignificant.
- Respondent error: Because processing procedures cannot detect or repair all errors made by people in completing the forms, some remain in final data.
- Undercount: Although the Census aims to count each person, there are some people who are missed and others who are counted more than once. The data in this publication are not adjusted for the net undercount.

- DATA LIMITATIONS continued 14 Further information on data quality is provided progressively in Census Update and in 2001 Census Papers.
- OVERSEAS VISITORS 15 Overseas visitors are defined differently for the 2001 Census. For the 1996 Census overseas visitors were defined as any person who stated they would be in Australia for less than 6 months. For the 2001 Census they are defined as any person who stated they would be in Australia for less than 12 months. Data for overseas visitors are restricted to age, sex and marital status.
- LABOUR FORCE STATISTICS 16 The labour force statistics collected from the Census are valuable in providing data for small groups of the population. They are not to be confused with the statistics from the monthly Labour Force Survey, which are only available at state, territory and capital city level.
- 17 Census figures differ from the survey figures because of differences in scope, questionnaire design and collection procedures. For more information refer to Census Working Paper 99/2—1996 Census: Labour Force Status and the 2001 Census Fact Sheet—Labour Force Status.
- 18 Official monthly labour force statistics are published in Labour Force, Australia (cat. no. 6203.0), produced monthly.
- CALCULATIONS OF PROPORTIONS 19 When calculating the proportion of the population with a particular characteristic, 'Not stated' responses are included in the denominator. For example in table 4 the proportion of persons aged 15 years and over with qualification for each geographic area is calculated by dividing the number of persons who stated that they had a non-school qualification by the total population of the geographic area and expressing the result as a percentage. The 'Total population' includes the category 'Not stated'.
- 20 For census variables which include data for overseas visitors i.e. age, sex and marital status, 'Overseas visitors' are also included in the denominator.
- CALCULATION OF MEDIANS 21 A median is a measure of central tendency. It is a mid value which divides a population distribution into two, with half the observations falling below it and half above it. Unlike averages (means) medians are not usually skewed by extreme observations.
- 22 There are a number of issues to be aware of:
- The categories 'Not stated' and 'Not applicable' are not included in the calculation of medians.
  - The category 'Overseas visitor', is excluded in the calculation of all medians in this publication.
  - If a median falls into a category that has a text only label, then a value of '0' is used for that category. For this publication this is only relevant to the calculation of median income, as the income classification includes categories 'Nil income' and 'Negative income'.
  - When calculating a median on a classification containing ranges, the median may fall into a range which is open-ended. In this case, the median would be set to the number in the label. For example, in the calculation of median weekly individual income, if the median was to fall in the last range $1,500 or more, then $1,500 would be allocated as the median.

- 'Median monthly housing loan repayment' and 'Median weekly rent' are based on the ranged variables HLRD01 and RNTD01 respectively. This is due to difficulties associated with the large number of small cells when using individual dollar values to perform these calculations. An adjustment has been made to HLRD01, with the range $1,500 and over changed to $1,500–$1,999 and an additional range $2,000 and over added.

SELECTED AVERAGES

- 23 Median monthly housing loan repayment is applicable to occupied private dwellings being purchased and includes dwellings being purchased under a rent/buy scheme.
- 24 Median weekly rent is applicable to occupied private dwellings being rented. It excludes dwellings being occupied rent free, Visitor only households and Non-classifiable households.
- 25 Median weekly individual income is applicable to persons aged 15 years and over.
- 26 Median weekly family income is applicable to families in occupied private dwellings. It excludes families where at least one family member aged 15 years and over did not state an income, and families where at least one family member aged 15 years and over was temporarily absent.
- 27 Median weekly household income is applicable to occupied private dwellings. It excludes households where at least one member aged 15 years and over did not state an income, and households where at least one member aged 15 years and over was temporarily absent.
- 28 Mean household size is applicable to occupied private dwellings. It is based on the number of persons usually resident in the dwelling. It includes partners, children, and co-tenants (in group households) who were temporarily absent on Census Night. A maximum of three temporary absentees can be counted in each household. It excludes Non-classifiable households.

UNADJUSTED DOLLARS

- 29 The 1996 Census dollar values for Median weekly individual income, Median monthly loan repayments and Median weekly rent have not been adjusted into 2001 dollars.

GLOSSARY

General descriptions of terms and concepts used in this publication are provided below. Tables are also footnoted where applicable for additional clarity. Detailed definitions of classifications and concepts are available in the 2001 Census Dictionary (cat. no. 2901.0).

Couple family	This is a family based on two persons who are in a registered or de facto marriage and who are usually resident in the same household. The family may include any number of dependents, non-dependents and/or other related individuals. As it is not necessary for a parent-child relationship to be formed, a couple family can consist of a couple without children.
Family	A family is defined by the ABS as two or more persons, one of whom is at least 15 years of age, who are related by blood, marriage (registered or de facto), adoption, step or fostering, and who are usually resident in the same household. The basis of a family is formed by identifying either a couple, parent-child or other blood relationship. Information on persons temporarily absent on Census Night is considered in family coding.
Full-time/Part-time employment	This variable is based on the number of hours worked in all jobs held by employed people during the week before Census Night. It excludes any time off but includes any overtime or extra time worked: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>■ Part-time workers: employed people who worked up to 34 hours</li><li>■ Full-time workers: employed people who worked 35 hours or more.</li></ul>
Geographic areas	The tables in this publication are at the levels of Statistical Local Area, Statistical Subdivision and Statistical Division, as defined by the 2001 Census edition of the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC). Statistical Local Area (SLA): These areas consist of one or more Collection Districts and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. Statistical Subdivision (SSD): These areas consist of one or more SLAs and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. Statistical Division (SD): These areas consist of one or more SSDs and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. They do not cross state or territory boundaries. However, the Other Territories, Jervis Bay Territory and the Territories of Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands together form one SD. Capital city SDs are predominantly urban in character and the boundaries are delineated to contain the anticipated urban development of the capital cities (and associated urban centres) for a period of at least 20 years. SDs outside the capital city are designed to be relatively homogeneous regions characterised by identifiable social and economic links between the inhabitants and the economic units in the region, under the unifying influence of one or more major towns or cities. State/territory (STE): States and territories consist of one or more SDs and are the largest type of spatial unit in the ASGC. The six Australian states and five territories which are part of geographic Australia and included in the 2001 ASGC are New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, South Australia, Western Australia, Tasmania, Northern Territory, Australian Capital Territory, Jervis Bay Territory and the external Territories of Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands. In the ASGC, Jervis Bay Territory, the Territory of Christmas Island and the Territory of Cocos (Keeling) Islands are combined to form Other Territories (OT). For this series of publications, data for Other Territories are published down to SSD level in 2017.0 (Australia), and down to SLA in 2017.1 (New South Wales) for Jervis Bay Territory and 2017.5 (Western Australia) for Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

GLOSSARY continued

Geographic areas continued	More information about definitions, and lists of codes and names of the geographic areas can be found in Statistical Geography Volume 1—Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) 2001 (cat. no. 1216.0).
Household	A household is defined as a group of two or more related or unrelated people who usually reside in the same dwelling, who regard themselves as a household, and who make common provision for food or other essentials for living; or a person living in a dwelling who makes provision for his/her own food and other essentials for living, without combining with any other person. Under this definition, in a group house where occupants share the dwelling, each occupant who usually supplies his/her own food should be counted as a separate household and issued with a separate Household Form. In practice, however, most such households usually only complete one form.
Household income	Household income is the sum of the individual incomes of each resident present in the household on Census Night. If any resident aged 15 years or over is temporarily absent, or does not state their income, then household income is not derived for that household. Although visitors' incomes are excluded in the calculation of household income, household income is still calculated for households that comprise only visitors, in order to collect data on household incomes in holiday resorts.
Income	People aged 15 years and over are asked to indicate their usual gross weekly income by selecting an income range on the census form. There are 16 options ranging from 'Negative income', 'Nil income' through to '$1,500 or more per week'. For example, a person with a gross weekly income of $650 per week would tick the range '$600–$699 per week'. Gross weekly income is the income before tax, superannuation, health insurance, or other deductions are made. Gross income includes: family allowance, parenting payment, pensions, unemployment benefits, student allowances, maintenance (child support), superannuation, wages, salary, overtime, dividends, rents received, interest received, business or farm income (less operation expenses) and worker's compensation received.
Industry (of employment)	This variable describes the industries in which employed people (aged 15 years and over) work, and is coded to the Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC), 1993 (cat. no. 1292.0).
Labour force	The labour force is made up of employed and unemployed people aged 15 years and over.
Labour force status	Labour force status identifies whether a person aged 15 years or over is employed, unemployed or not in the labour force. Employed — includes those people who, during the week prior to Census Night, work for payment or profit; have a job from which they are on leave or otherwise temporarily absent; are on strike or stood down temporarily; or work as unpaid helpers in a family business. Unemployed — includes people who, during the week prior to Census Night, do not have a job but are actively looking for work (either full-time or part-time) and are available to start work. Not in the labour force — includes people aged 15 years and over who are not employed or unemployed as defined above. This includes people who are retired, pensioners and people engaged solely in home duties.
Non-School Qualification: Field of Study	This variable describes the field of study of the highest completed non-school qualification.
